Glasses—Built for Comfort
WE FIT STYLES TO SUIT
Glasses should be designed to suit the uses they are to be put to. The heavy shell spectacles for office or home and the neat appearing eyeglasses for the street—can both be made comfortable if rightly designed. ¶ We pay as careful attention to correct designing as we do to refracting your eyes for the proper lenses. We invite consultation regarding your eyeglass problems. Our experience and judgment will solve your difficulties.

SAGINAW

THE CAPITAL AND JUDICIAL SEAT OF SAGINAW COUNTY; ITS COMMERCIAL, FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL ADVANTAGES

(By Courtesy Secretary Saginaw Board of Commerce.)

The metropolis of north-eastern Michigan and the judicial seat of Saginaw county, the city is situated on the Saginaw river, approximately 90 miles north-west of Detroit and in the geographical center of the fertile Saginaw valley. Three main railroad systems, the Pere Marquette Michigan Central and Grand Trunk, and the one interurban line, the Michigan Railway System, connect Saginaw with every part of the state. Five divisions of the Pere Marquette and two of the Michigan Central center in Saginaw.

Saginaw, Michigan, is the one-time center of the lumbering industry in Michigan, which, when the lumber gave out, made good its transition into a modern manufacturing city with varied interests which have tided her through every storm that has shaken American business and led her into a continuous normal growth.

Sharing in the development of the automobile business in Michigan, the center of the Michigan coal fields with their heavy production of bituminous coal, the place of manufacture of dozens of articles of nation-wide fame, Saginaw besides is the center of one of the finest agricultral districts in the United States. Its farms are an effective complement to the efforts of the city people and furnish an ever increasing field for the city's business activities.

FUR TRADER FIRST SETTLER

The foundations for the city of Saginaw were laid soon after the beginning of the nineteenth century. It was in 1816 that Louis Campau, French fur trader, came to Saginaw and built the first permanent habitation ever constructed in the Saginaw valley by a white man.

Campau continued his trading, and year by year other hardy adventurers, attracted by the fur trade, came to the valley. For the most part the Indians were friendly, though there were occasional hostilities, mostly of a minor character.

In Saginaw, near Campau's old fur trading post, was laid the scene of the transaction which added a large part of Michigan to the domain of the United States. In 1819 General Lewis Cass, hero of the War of 1812, came to Saginaw at the direction of the United States government and negotiated the treaty with the Indians which gave the fertile Saginaw valley and other portions of Michigan to the United States. Later a fort was built on the site of the present city, and garrisoned for a time by troops of the United States army.

FIRST LUMBER MILL BUILT

It was about 1830 that the bolder spirits of the valley, who had begun to recognize the possibilities latent in the great forests of Michigan, commenced to make practical application of their foresight.

In 1834 the first mill was built on the Saginaw river to saw the logs from the luxuriant pine forests of Michigan. It was the start of a tremendous period of development for the valley. During the next half century lumber was the main-spring of the Saginaw valley's activities. It is said that more white pine was floated down the Saginaw river than on any other river in the world, and at one time more than 100 mills, large and small, lined its banks.

CITIES ARE CONSOLIDATED

The city of Saginaw, on the west side of the Saginaw river and clustered around the site of the old fort, was first in 1832. Within the next few years another settlement, on the east side of the river, known as East Saginaw, was growing up and this in turn was incorporated in 1848. A third settlement, Salina, so named from the great salt deposits of the valley, which were developed about the same time as the lumber industry and adding greatly to the wealth of the valley, grew up and was incorporated in 1866 under the name of South Saginaw.

In 1873 the process of incorporating these settlements into a single city began with the merging of East Saginaw and South Saginaw under the name of the former. This was followed in 1890 by the consolidation of Saginaw City, the original settlement, with East Saginaw to form the present city of Saginaw.

INDUSTRY SUCCEEDS LUMBER

Toward the end of the nineteenth century the lumber which many had thought inexhaustible, began to give out, and as a result the sawmill industry commenced to languish. Two forces combined to save the city from the stagnation or total disappearance which was the fate of many of the early Michigan lumbering towns. One was the discovery in the closing years of the century of large deposits of soft coal in the valley, easily accessible. The other was the introduction into Saginaw of many large manufacturing plants. These grew rapidly and soon succeeded lumber as the dominant influence in the valley. Their development, continued until the present day and still gaining headway, has accomplished the transition from lumber to industry in a manner so gradual that residents of the city hardly realized it until the change had been made. Lumber is still an important factor in the city's business, but the several big plants devoted to the industry derive their supplies of raw materials from Georgian Bay, from the south or the Pacific coast states rather than from the Saginaw valley itself.

SAGINAW NOW INDUSTRIAL CENTER

While millions of feet of pine lumber from the Saginaw valley once floated down the river to scores of sawmills, it is as an industrial community that the city now has its greatest influence. Industries numbering 120 manufacture 125 main classes of products with many associated articles.

Many of these industries furnish products that are nationally known. Six plants of the General Motors Corporation group of industries manufacture automobile motors, steering gears, crankshafts, grey and malleable iron castings, plate glass and other products for General Motors and other cars.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH

Local banks are all strong and prosperous institutions. Four in number (three of them state and one national institutions) they show a stability and size which causes them to rank among the leading financial institutions in Michigan. Total banking figures, March, 1925: Capital, $2,550,000; surplus, $2,933,000; deposits, $38,577,000; loans, $39,-055,000.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT IN FORCE

Saginaw is governed under the commission system. The governing body of the city is a five-man commission, including a mayor and four councilmen, each elected for a four year term. They constitute both the legislative and executive body of the city, the council as a whole exercising the legislative functions, while each of its members is head of an administrative department of the city government. Police and fire departments are operated by this city government in an efficient manner and are well provided with necessary men and apparatus. The police department has 90 men, while the fire department has 107 men and 14 pieces of motor apparatus.

Saginaw has 100 miles of paved streets, said to be the largest mileage possessed by any city of its size in the United States. The health of the city's residents is guarded by an efficient city health department, operating in the schools as well as among the residents generally. Within the past few years this department has brought about a marked improvement in health conditions, an improvement which shows every indication of continuing.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY PROSPEROUS

According to the most reliable estimates over 16,000 men are employed in Saginaw's industrial plants. They form a contented body of workmen, and the city is singularly free from the undesirable type of floating population so frequently found in industrial centers. At the same time the labor supply is adequate to meet all demands.

An indication of the stability of the city's population is found in the fact that statistics show 70 per cent of Saginaw's more than 15,000 homes are occupied by their owners, 65 per cent of the homes being owned free of incumbrance.

Excellent conditions in industry are reflected in the prosperous state of business in Saginaw.

Local business houses are strong and thriving, and wholesale merchants here sell their goods to several hundred towns all over Michigan. Local retailers also sell goods to residents of scores of towns within a radius of 50 miles of Saginaw.

PRODUCTS GO ALL OVER WORLD

The Lufkin Rule Co. turns out rules and tapes and other measuring instruments that find a market in every civilized country in the world. The United States Graphite Co. produces here, from raw materials mined in Mexico, a large part of the pencil leads and graphite lubricants used in the United States.

One of the principal factories of the Michigan Sugar Co. turns out beet sugar from beets raised in huge quantities in the Saginaw valley. Wickes Bros. and the Wickes Boiler Co. produce vertical water-tube boilers used all over the world, crankshaft lathes on which the shafts for more than a dozen of America's leading automobiles are machined, and gang saws which help to cut the timber of the south and west. The principal plant of the Sonora Phonograph Corporation is located here, while the American Register Co. does a heavy business in foreign countries as well as in the United States.

SCHOOLS, CHARITIES, WELL HANDLED

In the things which make life pleasurable, safe and progressive for its citizens Saginaw has gone far. Thirty-one public and 18 parochial schools attend to the education of the children, their total enrollment being 16,125. All are at a high plane of efficiency and have sound and progressive direction. Fifty-eight churches and missions, most of them with handsome and up to date church buildings minister to the spiritual side of the city's life.

Charitable and welfare work is efficiently handled by fourteen organizations associated under the direction of the Saginaw Welfare League, one of the pioneer community chest organizations in the country. This organzation attends to the financing and oversees the operation of all of its associated organizations. Since its formation in 1919 it has raised more than one and one-quarter millions of dollars for the maintenance of charitable work and for extension and improvement of the buildings housing welfare institutions. It was instrumental in the construction of one of the finest hospitals in the country at a cost of $650,000.

RESORTS DRAW THOUSANDS

Saginaw is the center of a splendid system of good roads, improvement of which is continually in progress. It is on the Dixie highway, leading north and south through Michigan, the Colgrove highway, running east and west across the state, and many other roads which serve the ends of communication as well as bringing a steady flow of business to the city.

Almost at Saginaw's door is one of the finest resort districts of Michigan, known for its splendid summer resort facilities. The east side of the state, fronting on Lake Huron, is an ever advancing field for resorters, and in the spring and fall brings thousands of hunters and fishermen from this and other states. Resorts by the score are springing up not only on the shore of Lake Huron, but on hundreds of small lakes in the interior of the state.

CONVENTIONS ARE FREQUENT

Saginaw is a popular convention city with Michigan people. Its municipal auditorium, seating 3,000 people and equipped with a $25,000 pipe organ, offers facilities for conventions and exhibitions hardly equalled in the state, and hotel accommodations are ample to handle large gatherings.

Advancement of the city's civic and business life are fostered efficiently by the Saginaw Board of Commerce, an organization of 1,500 members. The Board of Commerce, sponsors wholesale and retail merchant's bureaus, one of the best merchant-owned credit bureaus in the United States, and many other activities. A Junior Board of Commerce, associated with the senior board, yet operating independently, unites the younger men of the city in civic endeavor.

WATER TRANSPORTATION AVAILABLE

The Saginaw river offers unexcelled opportunities for water transportation, and with the materialization of the Great Lakes-to-the-sea waterway project is expected to assume even more importance in the city's business and industrial activities. Water transportation to other Great Lakes ports is now available. The Saginaw-Bay City Steamship Co. has recently been organized to operate steamships on the Great Lakes.

COUNTY FAIRS

Saginaw has what is claimed to be one of the best county fairs in the world. Housed in a plant valued at $250,000, the fair has drawn as high as a quarter of a million people and presents a splendid exhibition of the products of Michigan farms and other exhibits of interest to farmers and city people alike.

POPULATION

The Federal Census figures for Saginaw follow: 1910, 50,510; 1920, 61,903; 1922, 68,581; 1923, 69,754.

The customary means of estimating the population of a city is to multiply the number of names in the City Directory by 2½ to allow for the names of women and children not included in the Alphabetical List of Names. In the present volume there are 28,706 names. By use of the above multiple, a population of 71,765 is shown. In comparing this estimate with the National census figures and estimates from other sources, it should be borne in mind that the territory embraced in the directory canvass is not confined to the city limits, but is extended to include the immediate suburbs the inhabitants of which are so closely identified with the city that a directory which did not include the suburban district would not be complete.

But the growth of the city or its advancement, is not to be indicated by mere figures. The pages of this volume present evidence of general civic, social and commercial advancement, new business blocks, new dwelling houses and new factories, which with the quality and caliber of the people, meaning a progress even more important to a municipality than mere number of inhabitants.

THE SAGINAW BOARD OF COMMERCE

The one organization in a community which upholds the ideals of good citizenship, right living and active co-operation among individuals, and organizations making up the city's life is the Board of Commerce. It surveys the community with a telescope to see the whole at once and at the same time with a microscope to search out the details. It encourages and co-ordinates individual efforts and takes its prominent place in all worth-while community activities. The Board solicits correspondence and is prepared to furnish data to investors, merchants, manufacturers, workingmen and homeseekers.

DIRECTORY LIBRARY

A Library of Directories, embracing the principal cities in the country, is maintained by the publishers in the rooms of the Saginaw Board of Commerce for the free use of patrons and the public.

MUNICIPAL PUBLICITY

Advertising Saginaw

An important function of the Directory is to set forth the characteristics and advantages of the city as a place of residence, as a business location, as an industrial site and as an educational centre. The Directory acts as a mirror, reflecting all that is noteworthy in the city in the above respects. In order to spread this information regarding the city broadcast over the country, the publishers place copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries which are maintained in all the larger cities of the country, where they are readily available for reference use by the public. There they serve as perpetual advertisements of Saginaw, for business men the country over realize that the City Directory represents the community as it really is.

There are over 300 of these directory libraries in the United States. They are installed and maintained by the Association of North American Directory Publishers as part of the service given to directory advertisers.

Think what this means to you in effort, time and money saved. You want to know the relationship of the signer of a letter to the firm he represents—the directory library has the answer; someone you vitally need to get in touch with in a distant city has moved; business addresses or firm names have changed—the directory library has the answer. Public officials have been replaced by new elections; location of real estate is desired—again the directory library holds the answer.

Of course you could write or phone for the data you desire, but maybe you don't know just who to approach—the directory library has the answer.

This service is free, for single reference, to the public.

DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE

EXPLANATION—On referring to this Directory it will be noticed that the names of streets, avenues, etc., follow each other in strictly alphabetical order without regard to location. Opposite each number will be found the name of householder, or householders if more than one, living there. In the case of a person or firm doing business at a certain number, the nature of the business will be stated after the name.

E. Genesee and Lapeer avenues on the East Side and Court street on the West Side are the dividing lines for North and South streets. All intersecting streets will also be found to follow in their correct order. On streets where no numbers show it is because the houses are not numbered and a notation is made to that effect after the description, although they have been canvassed and the names of the persons living on them will be found in the alphabetical portion of the book. In the case of a street having no houses on it at the time of the canvass, a proper notation is also made after the description of the street.
